Goodwyn and Cameron, with a large band of sheep and about twenty head of thoroughbred rams, had hauled lumber, and intended to locate near Bloody Point, but owing to the fact of there being three or four Modoc bucks and some squaws still in the lava beds, they concluded to remove to Lost River, opposite Ball's ranch. The whole country is being speedily gobbled up by settlers, and it will not be long before the Lost river and lava bed vicinity will become a prosperous and wealthy country.

Tweed's conviction in Phila- delphia.

From the age.

There are a dozen members of the "Ring" in this city as guilty in all particulars as "Boss" Tweed. Like him they have plundered the people and grown rich on jobs by which taxpayers suffered. Like him they live in fine mansions and wear diamond jewelry.
Like him they defraud members of the Legislature and prey upon the community by means of special acts. Like him they are lords of local politics. Like him they should be in the penitentiary.
But they are not. They are still at large and lead the Radical party in this city.
They nominate officers and declare them elected. They appoint election officers and control the ballot box. They levy taxes and collect and spend them. They plunder the treasury and increase the debt. These things are done by the Tweeds of this city, and yet they are not out of—not in prison. Instead, then, of exulting over the sentence of Tweed, let us bow our heads in shame that in this city the "Ring" Tweeds are in supreme power, while in New York the outraged law has been vindicated.

—There is much excitement in Boonville, Dallas county, Iowa, and thereabouts in regard to an alleged attempt to commit rape. It appears that Sylvester Harris, of that neighborhood, came to the city with his wife on Wednesday, leaving his children and house in charge of his hired girl named Corbin, and her sister, aged 18 and 15 years. A young man named Thomas Chandler, formerly working for him, and a parrot right man Thomas Phee, went to the house to stay all night, and while there it is charged that he attempted to have sexual intercourse with the two young girls. The girls fled to their father's, some two miles distant. Chandler was arrested at Boonville, and Phee was arrested in Dubuque and taken back. There was some talk of lynching the scamps.

PERSONAL.—Commiss Patterson and Kelly made our office a pleasant call on Tuesday. This is Mr. Kelly's last term upon the Board and he retires with the best wishes and respect of his colleagues and constituents.

Mr. Jordan an article of the Minneapolis Tribune, made us a pleasant call on Wednesday.

E. Hanlin, County Attorney elect, of Watertown, called around on Wednesday and was seen inspecting his new quarters in the Court House.

Col. Baxter, Mr. Peck and G. Kray-cubul, were called out of town during the week on business.

Commiss. Carlson and Wesbecher also greeted their many friends in town during the week. This is also Mr. Carlson's last session and he retires with the hearty good wishes of future prosperity of every member of the Board and County officer. Mr. C. has been Chairman of the Board for the last two years and has presided with dignity and signal ability during that time.

Mr. Wm. Leistic of Young America, also greeted us with hearty shake of the hand on Tuesday.

Dr. Miles, of Young America station made our office a call on Thursday. The Dr. has gained a wide reputation as a skillful physician and has an extended practice.

TOILET ARTICLES.—As the Holidays are approaching and as you wish to make a present to your sweetheart, sister and wife, be sure and call upon and examine the fancy toilet articles on exhibition in the Drug Store of Franken & Stark-en, Chaska.

LIVERY STABLE.—If you want a splendid turn out, now that it is good sleighting, be sure and call upon Mr. Dilley of Chaska.

WOOD.—Wood wanted in payment for subscription to the Herald. We must be kept warm this winter.

Furniture Store.

Messrs. Martin Van Sloan and John Dolz, two young mechanics of th's village have purchased the furniture goods of Mr. Thos. Kerker and will hereafter hold forth at the old stand. These young men are first class workmen and will, in addition to keeping first class furniture, do repairing of every description on short notice and at reasonable rates. Give them a call and examine their goods and prices.

DRUGS, PAINTS &c.—Messrs. Stark-en & Franken of the City Drug Store, have a large winter supply of drugs, paints, oils &c., which they are selling off cheap for cash. Give them a call and examine their stock.

BUSINESS.—Every branch of trade has greatly improved within the past week. Wood is coming in in endless quantities and now commands $1.25 per cord. Hoop poles and wood therefore forms the main part of the traffic from the country. Very little grain is being marketed, owing doubtless, to the low price of wheat.

COUNTY ROADS.—The County Board has been besieged this session with petitions for changes of county roads. In many cases, considerable feeling was exhibited by the parties interested. We need roads and good ones it that and must have them in time.

PORK & BEEF.—Loads of pork and beef, can be seen passing through town, or coming into this market every day.
Pork brings from $4 to $4.50 per hundred, and beef from $3 to $5 per hundred. Cheap enough we conclude.

CHASKA MARKET.—Wheat per bushel 82 cents. Barley per bushel $1.20, Oats 35 cents. Corn 40 cents.

CHASKA MAIL.—The steam mill has now plenty of wood and wheat and is running day and night. It is as usual turning out an extra barrel of flour.

King of the Blood. For Liver Complaint and Scrofula. Case.—You doubtless remember recommending your medicine, King of the Blood, to myself and wife, and that we took six bottles on your advice. I can now say that what I have of health is attributable to your medicine. It cured my wife of Scrofula, and myself of Liver Complaint. Send me six bottles by express. C. O. D.
Yours truly, M. V. B. Fisher, Petroleum Center, Pa.

Market.—Saturday last was market day, and it was a huge one, our streets were a perfect jam. Business with the merchants is said to have been much larger than at any previous time, money was plenty, and all bought freely, stock was sold in large quantities to Minneapolis and St. Paul buyers, cows especially, bringing a good price. Wheat brought 84 cts about 2000 bushels being marketed. Pork was also brought in by the big load and was sold at from 4 to 4 1/2 per pound. Turkeys, chickens and geese were thick, all readily picked up by the butchers.

Not Appeared.—The celebrated "Chaplin lives" who has been "playing surrey" up the Valley has not put in an appearance at this place yet. He knows where to go, and where not to go.— There's no pensioners up this way.

Bridged.—The Minnesota river is now bridged, foot passengers and teams now cross. The skating however is played out. The boys don't like it.

Boots & Shoes.—Chris Goetz is in receipt of a splendid assortment of ready made boots and shoes, ladies gaiters, and childrens shoes. Chris is an old hand at the business, and always gives entire satisfaction.

Fire.—Schrimpf hotel, just in rear of Hubelson & Petersons store had a narrow escape from burning last week.— We did not hear how or where it caught, but by a free use of river water, it was extinguished.

Doors and Sash.—All in want of doors sash, glasses &c. will do well by calling at Nelsons Drug store. He is selling cheap for cash.

Novelty.—John Oleson of San Francisco had a knitting machine on exhibition at the fair on Saturday, which attracted a good deal of attention.

Fresh oysters at Wm. Glitcheas, just below the post office.

Rev. Wm. R. Powell will preach in Carver at the usual place and hour on Sunday next.

Dance.—There was a very nice party at the Town Hall on last Friday evening which was well attended. The proceeds goes towards finishing the hall.

Henry Starken Esq. of Dahlgreen was meeting his friends on Saturday.

A Call.—Our friend Charlie Kenning gave us a call on business during the week, and we notice he is minus a finger, be careful Charlie, you cant afford to lose many more.

Toys.—J. S. Nelson at the Carver Drug Store, has been disposing of his extensive stock of fancy goods at a reduced rate, but he has plenty left, and topical of all descriptions from a penny whistle to a five dollar doll. Ladies give him a call.

To Commence.—The Carver Steam mill, R. N. Fearon prop. will soon be in readiness, to commence operations, it is the intention we understand to run it night and day, and they want 10,000 bushels of wheat for which they will pay the highest price in cash.

Remember.—That Capt. Mills at the Minneapolis depot is paying the highest market price for good dry maple wood, and Mr. R. N. Fearon at the Carver mill will do the same for oak and mixed wood.

Will do.—On last Friday morning the thermometer stood at 14° below zero, that will do to commence on, and in Nov. too, its coming.

Contract.—We neglected to mention last week in speaking of the new bridge being built over Carver creek, that the contract for filling with sand &c. was let to A. R. Anderson Esq. He being the lowest bidder.

Improving.—We are pleased to learn that Capt. Mills little daughter, Lake, who has been quite sick for some time is fast improving.

Hoop poles.—Alex McPhee of this place wants all the hoop poles in Carver County, for which he will pay the very highest cash price.

Personal.—Col. F. Oberlee, Coroner elect of this county, was shaking hands

County Supt. — We have taken occasion hereinbefore to mention the fact that our County Board would have the appointing of a County Supt. at school at the Dec. Session, and urged the claims of Mr. Wm. Benson of this place for the position. Since that time Judge Sargent of Chaska has received the appointment for the short term, that is for the unexpired term of Judge Kerkker of this office we have nothing to say, as we understand Mr. Sargent will not be an applicant for the place, when the new appointment is made in January. And as a few words on the subject, we can say that this place should be first by a practical Educator, one who will give his entire time and attention to this business. And who will bring our schools up to a level with those of other countries in the State, and we also find that Mr. Benson is better qualified than any other person in the County. We have made education a study all his life, he has done nothing else, and he to-day is recognized by our leading educators of the State as one able to fill any position in the educational line, that he might be assigned to. He will come before the Board in January armed with a 1st Grade Certificate from the State Superintendent of Schools for the State of New York, (where he taught for many years) also the same document from State Supt. Wilson of our State he will also make an appointment that will give the people of our County entire satisfaction, then they will certainly make this choice. We have authority to say that in these duties are conferred upon him, he will do all his best for the performance of his duties.

Apples.—Wm. Glitschka has 75 barrels of nice Michigan apples for sale.
Give him a call, they are selling fast.

Expected.—Our readers up this way will be glad to learn that Squire D. How formerly of Shakopee, and well known in this section as a Gentleman in all respects, having many friends is expected to return from California (where he has been for three years past) the coming week, to remain over winter, with his Brother D. L. How of Shakopee.

Person.—J. C. Patterson called during the week, Comar Carlson was also in town. E. Hauila of Waterbury was meeting his friends during the week.

Col. L. L. Baxter, How, H. B. Denny and John Trave were consulting together on Monday last, what up?

Judge Sargent, the new Supt. of schools was in town during the week.

L. H. Griffin, H. B. Denney, Chas. J. Johnson, A. P. Peterson, John Blom, J. P.
Tory and others were at the "Capital of our County" on Saturday last in attendance at the contested election case of Hevry vs. Brunius, as by spectators however.

Dr. Wiles of Young America was in town during the week.

Supt. Smith of the Minneapolis Road was looking about town on Saturday.

Conductor John O. Bryan of the Dummy is running the through train on the St. Paul & N. W. Road. "Gus" is in charge of the Dummy.

Unfortunate.—Brist Holsen a prominent and well known citizen of Benton town, this county, had the misfortune to have his pocket picked of $80 at Minneapolis last week while about getting on to the train, among a large crowd. Mr. H. had been down selling Pork and Beef what is bad about it is the part of the money belonged to other party.

Hunting.—Capt Johnson and August Tess went out in Hancock town last week and brought back a fine Hawk, woodcock too.

The Market.—During the past week grain has been moving freely into good sleighing and a slight advance in prices, wheat brought $5 to 56 cents, The Mill purchased the largest quantity, Pork was also being marketed and sold for 14 to 15 cts. chickens and turkeys brought 7 to 9 cts. Saint Paul butchers picked them up for shipping to that point. Cord wood has declined, the best maple selling for $4.00 when at this time last year it brought from $5. to $5.25. Oak sells at $3.25.

Saint Paul.—We had occasion to visit the "Sainly City" last week on business, and met many old friends who we were glad to see among them was H. P.
Upham, Cashier of the 1st National Bank. He is "hood over heels" in business, but he is equal to the emergency, being one of the best Bankers our State can boast of. He is deservedly a popular officer, and with his able corps of assistants, its no wonder the 1st National is the most popular institution of the kind in the city.

Spinal Irritation.—I have made use of Dr. Frank's Magnetic Ointment in my practice in several cases of Spinal irritation, and find it a superior article and well worthy of public notice, and one which no family or person ought to be without.

Murder in Williamson County.

III.

Friday about 10 o'clock Mr. George W. Bullner, living in Williamson county, while on his way to this place was waylaid and murdered. He was about 3 miles from town, and while passing through a strip of woods, some unknown person or persons fired upon him with a revolver. Two shots were fired, both taking effect. He fell from his horse to the road, where he was picked up by persons who were in the immediate vicinity. Some four or five persons heard the report of the gun, but were unable to discover the murderer. The act must have been deliberately planned. Mr. Bullner had, the day previous, arranged to meet a gentleman in Carondelet, to attend to some business matters. The assassin concealed himself in a tree top that formed a perfect screen, and fired upon his victim at a distance of one hundred or sixty yards. Mr. Bullner lived about two hours after being shot. He conversed with those who came to his assistance, but expressed no knowledge as to the perpetrator. The murdered man is about 35 years of age. He was a wealthy farmer. For a number of years a bitter feud had existed between his family and some of his neighbors. It is generally believed, however, that he was murdered by some one who is a stranger here, but had known Mr. B. in St. Louis, before he came here. It is said that while he lived in that State he was taken out to be hanged by a mob, but was saved through the entreaties of his wife. Since he has lived in this part of the country his cotton-gin was burned at one time, his hay-stacks at another, and his dwelling attempted to be fired at still another. He was, indeed, a desperate man, and lost a desperate life. It is greatly feared that this is only the beginning of a series of murders. He has four sons all like himself, and all accus-ed to him of blood. The neighborhood is a noted one for rowdy, cutting and shooting, and the end is probably not yet.

The Delegate from Utah

From Washington letter.

The usual attempt have been made in the House to carry the delegate from Utah. They count at the commencement of every Congress. Some parties dispute the validity of his election, while others object to his admission under any circumstances, fearful that their morals may be corrupted by his presence. In the Senate also, Mr. Frelinghuysen introduced his yearly bill to prohibit polygamy in the territories. Of course, all this indignation is exhibited for office purposes, and often by men of doubtful private character. Indeed, I have often noticed that when a Congressman is engaged in a dispute, or when he supports in the suburbs of Washington, a private establishment presided over by his wife, he seeks to divert suspicion from himself by furiously plugging into Brigham Young or the delegate from Utah. But this has got to be pretty well played out. Utah has been represented in Congress for many years, and the official and personal conduct in Washington of her several delegates has been of such a character that not one of them has ever been suspended for wrong doing. They have never been charged with dishonesty, intemperance or lechery. They have never been connected with any ring or job, nor have they ever endeavored to procure the passage of bills to subvert their personal purposes, but have invariably exhibited a devotion to the interests of their constituents which other representatives might envy to advantage.

Interesting Present.

From the M. Ring Call Dec. 5th.

Col. A. Steinberg, the secret agent of the Government, who returned on the Fanny last Wednesday, from the Navigator Islands, brought with him a number of curious birds which are intended as a present to Miss Nellie Grant, daughter of the President. The collection consists of four doves, having the plumage of the body green, and that of the head red, and three large birds which are considered sacred by the natives. No persons save the chiefs of tribes are permitted to catch and keep them. They are somewhat larger than the common pigeon, and of a dark gray color. They have been so trained that they will not eat food unless it is handed to them between the thumb and finger, and will not drink except by sipping from the mouth of the person who has them in charge. There are also in the collection a very rare bird called the doo (though it cannot be the doo of Madagascar) and two vauquers.

State Grange Council.

The Grand Grange of the order of Patrons of Husbandry, met in Council at Faribault on the 16th inst., there were some 300 Granges represented.

We are informed by Mr. J. H. Thomas, of Young America, that there are 405 organized Granges in the State.

Mr. Thomas was also appointed Deputy for this County and is duly empowered to organize and institute Lodges in this County. Mr. Thomas will be pleased to give any information in his possession respecting the order. Address, J. H. THOMAS, Deputy, Young America, Minn.

A Family Obliterated.

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

We read in the New York Herald of Wednesday, in reference to the Ville du Havre disaster: "Murray, Hamilton, No information. 'Murry, Miss. No information. 'Platt, Mrs. C. A. No information. We can supply the deficiency. Five years ago there lived in the city of Oswego, N. Y., a happy family of seven, a family of wealth, high social position well known in New York and Philadelphia. The head of it, the Hon. Hamilton Murray, held several positions of trust and honor. He was called away, and five years ago he died. Not long after his death, his eldest son, who graduated at our university with honors, was accidentally drowned soon after he received his diploma. Not long after, the eldest daughter, a lovely girl, sunk under the wasting destroyer, consumption, and was laid by her father and brother. This triple grief was too much for the heart broken wife and mother, and she went to join them in the happy land. But in going she had to leave her three youngest, two sons and a daughter. Calling to her sister, her lifelong bosom friend, Mrs. C. A. Platt, she confided to her care these three, enjoining upon her never to leave them until they had embarked in life, and requesting her to accompany them to Europe and superintend their education. These three were down together, and now the Murray family, all save one, the youngest, Charles, now at Princeton College, are reunited in their eternal home with their friend, Mrs. Platt, who was more than sister to them all. Mrs. Caroline A. Platt was the widow of William Platt, son of the Hon. James Platt, of Oswego. She leaves one son, James, in business in New York. If ever there was an earnest worker in charity and love, Mrs. Platt was one—a sincere Christian, devoted mother, never-failing friend. She has gone to meet her reward.

It has been our ill fortune, when we venture to venture to our countrymen, to present to them the strength of dispatches, for any particular act, to find that the thing we praised was exactly the one that did not take place. A day or two since news came that the Senate had refused to adjourn over the holidays. As this ordinarily means two weeks, we took occasion to praise the decision, believing it sufficient. Now, however, the subject has been decided to take a recess of sixteen days, instead of the usual time. Thus, in a critical period of public affairs, when all the leading interests of society are at work, and every one is waiting action from the national legislature, the day goes off on a long holiday, and the things slide. We do not regret what we said on the subject, but feel compelled to take it back. That such a vacation is wrong, and against the interests of the country, will, we think, be generally conceded. It was not so in the early days of the republic.—Pioneer.

HOME OF YOUR OWN.

The explanation given by Mr. Medill, of Chicago, now in Europe, how the French people were enabled to raise $1,100,000 in money, in a few months, to ransom the country from German occupation, ought to attract their attention to the Frenchman who had a home of his own, and with that had managed to save up some hard money for a day of need. That was all. Cultivation of the soil insured the means of life, and free trade with the world had enabled the masses to lay up wealth. With all their partial love to make a dollar go ten times as far as an average American. Their riches were not imaginary, but real. In the day of calamity they had means to live the government promptly out of difficulty. Its loans were taken as fast as offered, and they are getting ready now to redeem their last possessions in a currency they are even more re-estimated to than money. The only proper ransom a brave nation can make, is with steel. All America to-day, could not raise $100 enough to take a $50,000,000 loan if the government was suffering in the greatest extremity. We ought to be able to profit from the financial lesson France has set us.

Petitions are being extensively circulated throughout the State, for presentation to the legislature, for more restrictive measures regulating the traffic in intoxicating drinks.

The Butterfield scandal has ceased to be the general topic of conversation in Shakopee.

Mrs. How as is well known has returned to her home if not to her husband. Her example was soon followed by Butterfield who is now with his wife and children. Perhaps he is happy, and considers himself a hero. If such is not the case it is not the fault of the "toasts" who surround him.

To the Public.

Wishing to correct the false reports that have been circulated, that the H. & D. trains fail to make connections with St. P. & S. C. trains at Shakopee for St. Paul, I would inform the traveling public that the trains do connect with "Nasser's Nankato Accommodation" both to and from St. Paul. The State Auditor says he is prepared to and will commence probably Monday, another prosecution for failure to pay the State tax on liquor sellers for benefit of the proposed State Industrial Asylum. Up to this time, he threatens only those who refuse to pay, but will soon commence on those who merely neglect to pay.—St. Paul Dispatch.

S. S. Celebration.

The Sabbath School celebration Christmas Eve, at the Moravian Church, was a grand success in every particular. By early candle light the church was crowded and many could not gain admittance. The church also presented a beautiful appearance, the ever memorable tree, laden with bonbons in a brilliantly lighted array the undivided attention of the many little bright eyes present.

By early candle light the church was crowded and many could not gain admittance. The church also presented a beautiful appearance, the ever memorable tree, laden with bonbons, a brilliantly lighted altar, the undivided attention of the many little bright eyes present.

The remarks of the Rev. Mr. Schwarz were eloquent and appropriate to the occasion. To Mr. F. Thies Superintendent and the class teachers belongs the credit of getting up and carrying the entertainment through successfully.

The music and singing was also excellent.
